WEEK 8

- Cadet Promotion Board this week

Notes from the Director

We started our first Cadet incentive trip this week by sending select Cadets on trip to see The Movie Jumanji on Tuesday March 6. A good time was had by all. I hope to be able to send more cadets on our next incentive trip. Incentives are a great privilege and something our cadets are striving to earn. Community Service Projects began this week. In addition to being one of our components, the Cadets get a great opportunity to provide a public service to get off the academy grounds for a while to blow off some steam. - COL Joslin
